10 CONDUCT AND SUSPENSION OF COMPANIONS

- 10.1 If the Master receives a written complaint identifying the complainant and alleging conduct by a Companion that in his reasonable opinion is detrimental to the interests of the Company, and suggests that there is a prima facie case for the complaint to be investigated in accordance with the provisions of this Article, he may suspend the Companion concerned.
- 10.2 Conduct detrimental to the interests of the Company includes conduct that is or could be regarded as detrimental to the work and/or reputation of the Company.
- 10.3 Where the Master is absent or unable or unwilling to act in relation to a complaint or the complaint is about the Master, then the Deputy Master may exercise the power to suspend the Master or a Companion under Article 10.1 in the same circumstances as the Master. In the event that the complaint relates to both the Master and Deputy Master, or both the Master and Deputy Master are unwilling to act, then the Board shall determine amongst themselves as to which Director shall consider the complaint received and exercise any suspension in accordance with Article 10.1.
- 10.4 The Companion whose conduct is complained of must immediately be notified in writing of the complaint and of any suspension which if exercised under Article 10.1 or Article 10.3, will be effective from the date of the notice. During the period of any suspension, the Companion must not:

12.2 The Board may call a General Meeting at any time, to be held at such time and place as the Board decides subject to Article 13.

12.3 On receiving a requisition from the percentage of Companions required under the Act the Board must promptly convene a General Meeting.

13 NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

13.1 Every General Meeting must be called by at least 14 Clear Days' notice.

13.2 A General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if this is agreed by a majority in number of the Companions who may attend and vote and who together hold 90% or more of the total voting rights of all of the Companions at the General Meeting.

13.3 The notice must specify:-

13.3.1 the time, date and place of the General Meeting;

13.3.2 the general nature of the business to be transacted; and

13.3.3 if a special resolution is proposed, the fact that the proposed resolution is a special resolution and the wording of the resolution.

13.4 Subject to the Act no business may be transacted at a General Meeting except that specified in the notice convening the meeting.

13.5 Notice of a General Meeting must be given to all of the Companions, the Directors, and to the Company's auditors (if any).

13.6 The accidental omission to give notice of a General Meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a General Meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice will not invalidate the proceedings at that General Meeting.

14 QUORUM

- 14.1 No business may be transacted at a General Meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 14.2 The quorum for General Meetings is 15% of the Companions for the time being, being present in person or by proxy.
- 14.3 A Companion may be part of the quorum at a General Meeting if he can hear, comment and vote on the proceedings through telephone, video conferencing or other communications equipment.
- 14.4 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes from the time of the General Meeting or a quorum ceases to be present during a General Meeting it must be adjourned to such time and place as the Board decides.
- 14.5 If at the adjourned meeting there are again insufficient Companions present within 15 minutes from the time of the adjourned General Meeting to constitute a quorum then the meeting shall be dissolved.
- 14.6 Reasonable notice of an adjournment of a General Meeting because of a lack of quorum and the time and place of the adjourned General Meeting must be given to all Companions.

15 MASTER AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 15.1 The Master is to chair General Meetings.
- 15.2 If the Master is not present within 15 minutes from the time of the General Meeting or is unwilling to act then the Deputy Master, if any, must chair the General Meeting.
- 15.3 If neither the Master nor the Deputy Master, if any, is present and willing to act within 15 minutes from the time of the General Meeting, the Companions present must choose one of their number to chair the General Meeting.

16 ADJOURNMENT OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 16.1 The Master may, with the consent of a General Meeting at which a quorum is present (and must if so directed by the General Meeting), adjourn it to a time and place agreed by the General Meeting.
- 16.2 The Master may also adjourn a General Meeting if it appears to the Master that for any other reason an adjournment is necessary for the business of the meeting to be properly conducted.
- 16.3 The only business that may be transacted at an adjourned General Meeting is that left unfinished from the General Meeting that was adjourned.
- 16.4 It is not necessary to give notice of a General Meeting which is adjourned under Article 16.1 or 16.2 unless it is adjourned for 30 days or more in which case 7 Clear Days' notice must be given.
- 16.5 Resolutions passed at an adjourned General Meeting are to be treated as having been passed on the date on which they were actually passed.

17 VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 17.1 Resolutions are to be decided on a show of hands unless a ballot is properly demanded.
- 17.2 Each Companion present in person or by proxy has one vote both on a show of hands and a ballot.
- 17.3 If there is an equality of votes on a show of hands or a ballot the Master is entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 17.4 An objection to the qualification of any voter may only be raised at the General Meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered. Every vote not disallowed at the General Meeting is valid. An objection made in time must be referred to the Master whose decision is final.
- 17.5 A declaration by the Master that a resolution has been carried (or not carried) unanimously, or by a particular majority, which is entered into the minutes of the meeting is conclusive evidence of the fact unless a ballot is demanded.

18 BALLOTS

- 18.1 A ballot may be demanded by the Master or by any two Companions before or on the declaration of the result of a show of hands.
- 18.2 A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn before the ballot is taken. If the demand for a ballot is withdrawn the result of the show of hands will stand.
- 18.3 The demand for a ballot will not prevent the General Meeting continuing to transact business other than in relation to the question on which the ballot is demanded.
- 18.4 A ballot is to be taken as the Master directs. The Master may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Companions) and set a time and place to declare the result. The result will be the resolution of the General Meeting at which the ballot was demanded but will be treated as passed when the result is declared.
- 18.5 A ballot on the election of a chair or an adjournment must be taken immediately. A ballot on any other question may be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the Master directs.
- 18.6 At least 7 Clear Days' notice must be given of the time and place at which the ballot is to be taken unless the time and place are announced at the General Meeting at which it is demanded.

19 PROXIES

- 19.1 A Companion may validly appoint a proxy by notice in writing which:
 - 19.1.1 states the name and address of the Companion appointing the proxy;
 - 19.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that Companion's proxy and the

General Meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

- 19.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the Companion appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and
- 19.1.4 is delivered to the Company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the General Meeting to which they relate.
- 19.2 A proxy need not be a Companion. The Board may from time to time prescribe a form to appoint a proxy by Standing Orders made under Article 40. A proxy may not appoint another proxy.
- 19.3 The document appointing a proxy may instruct the proxy which way to vote on particular resolutions.
- 19.4 A proxy will only be valid if the document appointing a proxy (and any power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed) or a properly certified copy is deposited at the Registered Office at least 72 hours before the starting time for the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote.
- 19.5 No document appointing a proxy will be valid for more than 12 months.
- 19.6 A vote given or ballot demanded by proxy is to be valid despite:-
 - 19.6.1 the revocation of the proxy; or
 - 19.6.2 the death or insanity of the principalunless written notice of the death, insanity or revocation is received at the Registered Office before the start of the General Meeting or adjourned General Meeting at which the proxy is used.
- 19.7 A proxy form will not be valid for any part of a General Meeting at which the Companion who appointed the proxy is present.

20 COMPANIONS' WRITTEN RESOLUTIONS

- 20.1 A written resolution approved by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of eligible Companions (provided that those Companions would constitute a quorum at a General Meeting) is as valid as if it had been passed at a General Meeting provided that:
 - 20.1.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible Companion;

24 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND BOARD MEMBER CONDUCT

24.1 Declaration of interests

- 24.1.1 If a Director is in any way, directly or indirectly, interested in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company, he must declare the nature and extent of that interest to the other Directors.
- 24.1.2 In accordance with the Act, the declaration may be made at a Board Meeting or by written notice.
- 24.1.3 If a declaration of interest proves to be or becomes inaccurate or incomplete a further declaration must be made.
- 24.1.4 Any required declaration of interest must be made before the Company enters into the transaction or arrangement.
- 24.1.5 A declaration is not required in relation to an interest of which the Director is not aware or where the Director is not aware of the transaction or arrangement in question. For this purpose a Director is treated as being aware of matters of which he ought reasonably to be aware.

24.1.6 A Director need not declare an interest:-

- 24.1.6.1 if it cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interests;
- 24.1.6.2 if the conflict arises solely by virtue of the Director being a beneficiary in the same position as other beneficiaries, and in such a situation there shall be deemed to be no conflict of interest; or
- 24.1.6.3 if, and to the extent that, the other Directors are already aware of it (and for this purpose the other Directors are treated as being aware of anything of which they ought reasonably to be aware).

24.2 Authorisation of direct conflicts of interests

A Director may enter into a transaction or arrangement with the Company only if and to the extent that such an arrangement is authorised by Article 5.

24.3 Authorisation of indirect conflicts of interest

24.3.1 Where, for whatever reason, a Director has any form of indirect interest in relation to a transaction or arrangement with the Company (which shall include a conflict of duty) and the transaction or arrangement is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles then it may be authorised by those Directors not having a conflict provided that:-

- 24.3.1.1 the Director with the conflict (and any other interested Director) is not counted when considering whether or not there is a valid quorum for that part of the meeting and does not vote in relation to the matter giving rise to the conflict; and
- 24.3.1.2 the Directors who do not have a conflict in relation to the matter in question consider it is in the best interests of the Company to authorise the transaction.

24.3.2 The Directors who do not have a conflict in relation to the matter in question may, in their absolute discretion, determine that the Director with the conflict and/or any other interested Director should absent himself from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion concerning the transaction or arrangement giving rise to the conflict.

24.4 Complaints about conduct

24.4.1 If the Master receives a written complaint identifying the complainant and alleging conduct by a Director that in his/her reasonable opinion is detrimental to the interests of the Company, and suggests that there is a prima facie case for the complaint to be investigated in accordance with the provisions of this Article, s/he may suspend the Director concerned.

24.4.2 Conduct detrimental to the interests of the Company includes:

- 24.4.2.1 any breach of a Director's obligations as set out in the statement of obligations of Directors signed by him/her under Article 22 or otherwise; and/or
- 24.4.2.2 conviction of any offence which has or is likely to bring the Company into disrepute.
- 24.4.3 Where the Master is absent or unable or unwilling to act in relation to the complaint or the complaint is about the Master then the Deputy Master may exercise the power to suspend the Master or a Director under Article 24.4.1 in the same circumstances as the Master. In the event that the complaint relates to both the Master and Deputy Master, or both the Master and Deputy Master are unwilling to act, then the Board shall determine amongst themselves as to which Director shall consider the complaint received and exercise any suspension in accordance with Article 24.4.1.
